When considering how much to contribute to superannuation please remember that contribution caps apply. The current concessional cap is $30,000 per year. Information regarding these concessional and non-concessional caps can be found on www.ato.gov.au or by contacting your superannuation fund for further details.

Any decisions regarding contribution amounts need to be considered in light of your own individual financial position and you are encouraged to seek independent financial advice before proceeding.

Should you wish to contribute to your spouse's super and are a member of Russell SuperSolution MasterTrust please contact the Payroll Office. Members of other funds should contact their fund directly.
